Other important information

- Regulation S-AM allows a consumer, in certain limited situations, to block affiliates of investment advisers from soliciting the consumer based on eligibility information (i.e., certain financial information, such as information regarding the consumer's transactions or experiences with the covered person) received from the covered person. Unlike Regulation S-P, which implements the financial privacy provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Regulation S-AM does not limit a covered person's ability to share information. Instead, it limits a covered person's ability to use eligibility information received from an affiliate to solicit a consumer for marketing purposes. This notice is being provided to you fulfill our requirements pursuant to Regulations S-P and S-AM.
- For Vermont residents: In accordance with Vermont law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of our corporate family, except as permitted by law, including, for example with your consent or to service your account. We will not share information about your creditworthiness within our corporate family except with your authorization or consent, but we may share information about our transactions or experiences with you within our corporate family without your consent.
- For Nevada residents: We may contact our existing customers by telephone to offer additional financial products that we believe may be of interest to you. You have the right to opt out of these calls by adding your name to our internal do-not-call list. To opt out of these calls, or for more information about your opt out rights, please contact your advisory team or you can reach us by calling 913-295-9500; by emailing Compliance@previaliws.com; or writing to Prevail Innovative Wealth Advisor. You are being provided this notice under Nevada state law. In addition to contacting U.S. Bank, Nevada residents can contact the Nevada Attorney General for more information about your opt out rights by calling 702.486.3132, emailing aginfo@ag.nv.gov, or by writing to: Office of the Attorney General, Nevada Department of Justice, Bureau of Consumer Protection 100 North Carson Street, Carson City, NV 89701-4717.
